

Tasmanian Suicide Prevention Community Network Forum 2018

THURSDAY 24 MAY 2018 - TAILRACE CENTRE, LAUNCESTON

Theme: Making a Connection, Making a Difference

The program will include invited speakers, workshops and lived experience speakers with a focus on strengthening community connections and engaging those at risk of becoming isolated. Invited speakers have been recommended by TSPCN members and include:

Prof Nicholas Procter, University of South Australia

Tracy McCown, Suicide Prevention Australia Lived Experience Network

Zac Seidler, Man Island Project, University of Sydney

Prof Brian Draper, University of New South Wales

Who: The forum is open to anyone with an interest in suicide prevention and is a great opportunity to network with others with a shared interest including community members, those with lived experience, government employees and service providers.

Pre-Forum Workshops: Invited speakers Prof Brian Draper and Zac Seidler have kindly agreed to offer extended workshops for service providers working with older adults and men on Wednesday 23 May, 1pm-4pm. Places are limited and preference will be given to those who have registered for the forum.

Registration is open: $90 for full price and $45 concession. Limited scholarship positions are available.
